Subject: Matrox Extio F1xx0, RG & ATC Series Product Availability.

Dear Matrox Graphics Customers,

As it may have been previously identified to you, several Matrox products that have been continuously shipping since about 2005, are experiencing various component availability issues, and have been placed under restricted production status to sustain availability – while supplies last.

It is with regret we can no longer procure many of the key components for the various products listed below, and have been forced into a “last time buy” material purchase program to continue manufacturing as long as possible:

Matrox Product Name	Matrox Part Number
Extio F1220	XTO-F1220F
Extio F1240	XTO-F1240F
Extio F1400	XTO-F1400F
Extio F1420	XTO-F1420F
ATC RG-200DL	RG-200DLXF
ATC RG-200DL	RG-200DLWF
ATC RG-400SL	RG-400SLXF
PCI interface card for above applicable products	XTOA-FP66RLPAF
PCI interface card for above applicable products	XTOA-FP66LPAF
PCI interface card for above applicable products	XTOA-FP33LPAF
PCIe interface card for above applicable products	XTOA-FESLPAF
PCIe interface card for above applicable products	XTOA-FELPAF
ATC 4MP PCI Controller for non-Windows environments	ATC-P2KX-10F
ATC 4MP PCIe Controller for non-Windows environments	ATC-4MP-EXF

We continue to ask all customers on an ongoing basis to provide their best effort in forecasting their demand to allow us to best assess the situation. Using such forecasts and orders placed, to the best of our ability, Matrox will continue to manufacture and service on a case-by-case basis, while supplies last and without further notice.

Please ensure to communicate this information to all affected parties and to update your files accordingly. Your respective Matrox Regional Sales Manager or local Matrox Sales Office (matrox.com/graphics) would be pleased to discuss your needs to help you determine an alternative Matrox solution.
